

349—1.1(28) Scope. Community empowerment is created to establish partnerships between state government and communities. The emphasis is to develop community empowerment areas to improve the well-being of children and their families and, through collaboration, to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of local early care, education, health and human services.